

A NEW ELM IS BORN— THE AUGUSTINE ASCENDING ELM!

ADVANTAGES:

- Column-like stature
- Great strength and indestructibility
- Large leaves—compact root system
- Healthy resistance to tree plagues
- Allows sun to reach area around trunk

No other tree offers such possibilities

SUITABILITY:

- Any place where a good sized upright tree is desired.
- Boundary enclosures
- Will Provide Shade for You, Your Children and

Theirs . . . The Augustine Elm is NATURE'S OWN MUTATION

EASY TO PLANT AND CARE FOR:

1. Dig adequate holes; fill with water two times.
2. Plant tree two inches deeper than top of roots.
3. Press earth down firmly and water again.
4. Mulch surface and wrap trunk.

BE ONE OF THE FIRST TO PLANT

AUGUSTINE
ASCENDING ELM
Trademark REGISTERED

AUGUSTINE ASCENDING ELM
RESEARCH ASSOCIATION, INC.
932 EAST 50TH STREET
CHICAGO 15, ILLINOIS